3.4 Remuneration Governance

The Remuneration Policy is overseen by the Group's Remuneration Committee. The Committee consists of independent Non-Executive directors enabling the committee to apply independent judgement in remuneration matters in the context of managing risk, value and capital in line with customers' expectations as well as ensuring compliance with the relevant regulatory remuneration requirements.

The role of the committee is to set the overarching principles of the remuneration policy and to exercise oversight of the implementation of the policy and to consider and approve remuneration arrangements for the Chair, the Executive Directors of the Company and other senior executives including MRTs.

The Group's Remuneration Committee's main responsibilities are to:

- Review and approve the Group's remuneration strategy and policy.

The Remuneration Committee is supported by the Board Risk Committee in order to help meet its obligations and consider risk in remuneration.

The Committee met 4 times in 2022.

3.5 Components of remuneration

The Firm makes a clear distinction between the fixed and variable remuneration.

Fixed remuneration primarily reflects a staff member’s professional experience and organisational responsibility as set out in the staff member’s job description and terms of employment; and is permanent, pre-determined, non-discretionary, non-revocable and not dependent on performance.

Variable remuneration is based on company and individual performance, reflecting the long-term performance (including behaviours) of the staff member as well as performance in excess of the staff member’s job description and terms of employment. The Firm ensures that the fixed and variable components of an individual’s total remuneration are appropriately balanced.

In determining this balance, the Firm considers the following factors:

- The Firm’s business activities and associated prudential and conduct risks;
- The role of the individual in the Firm;
- The impact that different categories of staff have on the risk profile of the Firm or of the assets it manages;
- No individual must be dependent on variable remuneration to an extent likely to encourage them to take risks outside the risk appetite of the Firm;
- It may be appropriate for an individual to receive only fixed remuneration, but not only variable remuneration; and
- Variable remuneration must not affect the Firm’s ability to ensure a sound capital base.

When assessing individual performance to determine the amount of variable remuneration to be paid to an individual, the Firm considers financial as well as non-financial criteria.

Non-financial criteria does:

- form a significant part of the performance assessment process;
- override financial criteria, where appropriate;
- include metrics on conduct, which should make up a substantial portion of the non-financial criteria; and
- include how far the individual adheres to effective risk management and complies with relevant regulatory requirements.

3.6 Financial and non-financial performance criteria

The Firm uses the following financial performance criteria:

- EBITDA
- AUA

The Firm uses the following non-financial performance criteria:

- measures relating to building and maintaining positive customer relationships and outcomes, such as positive customer feedback
- performance in line with firm strategy or behaviours, for example by displaying leadership, collaboration, teamwork or creativity;
- staff engagement levels
- adherence to the firm’s risk management and compliance approach and policies;
- Progress is being made on its diversity, equality and inclusion strategy.

3.8 Material risk takers

The Firm has identified MRTs in accordance with SYSC 19G.5 and the qualitative criteria set out in SYSC 19G.5.3R, 19G.5.4RG and SYSC 19G.5.5G. In addition, as part of this Disclosure Policy, the Firm also draws from the Remuneration Policy which requires us to identify our MRTs on an annual basis. A MRT is defined as a staff member who has overall responsibility and material impact on the risk profile of the Firm.

For the performance year 2022, the Firm identified 7 MRTs, broken down as follows:

The staff member has authority to take decision approving or vetoing the introduction of new products	1

3.9 Risk adjustment

The Firm takes risk, including conduct risk, into account both on an ex-ante and ex-post basis when setting the amount and form of variable remuneration for employees. Different lines of business have different risk profiles, and these are taken into account when determining (future) remuneration. Guidelines are provided to assist compensation managers when applying discretion during the remuneration process to promote consistent consideration of the different risks presented by the firm's businesses. Further, to ensure the independence of control function employees, remuneration for those employees is not determined by individuals in revenue-producing positions but rather by the management of the relevant control function.

The Firm has implemented a set of procedures which ensures that all variable remuneration payable is subject to (i) in-year adjustments (all staff); (ii) malus, if appropriate (applicable to MRTs); (iii) and/or clawback (applicable to MRTs). To ensure effective risk adjustment, the Firm requires employees who receive variable remuneration awards to agree to forfeiture and clawback in the event of fraud, misconduct or actions contributing to the detriment of business interests. Ex-ante risk adjustment of variable remuneration can occur through the considerable reduction in total variable performance where subdued or negative financial performance of the Firm occurs, taking into consideration the Firm's regulatory capital, liquidity requirements and the current and future risks it has identified. Furthermore, an individual's variable remuneration may be reduced, or if malus or clawback is available, utilised, where employment issues have been identified as part of the ongoing performance review process in place at the Firm.

Performance adjustment events may occur as a result of a deliberate or malicious act, error, accident or negligence. There may also be grounds for a performance adjustment due to an individual's failure to act either to prevent a risk event or where timely action would have mitigated the effects of a risk event. Performance adjustment seeks to take account of matters that were not apparent at the time of the original variable award. Adjustments or application of malus or clawback will depend upon the severity of the event and will be subject to Remuneration Committee approval.

3.10 Policies and criteria for awarding guaranteed variable remuneration and severance payments

The Firm awards guaranteed variable to an MRT only when:

1. it occurs in the context of hiring a new MRT;
2. it is limited to the first year of service;
3. it is designed as a retention tool; and
4. the firm has a strong capital base.

The Firm follows all local statutory severance requirements. Severance payments made will not be disproportionate but will appropriately compensate the employee in cases of early termination of the contract. Severance payments do not reward failure and will not be awarded where there is a failure in risk management or conduct.

4. Risk management objectives and policies

4.1 Own funds requirements – MIFIDPRU 4

When assessing the adequacy of the Own Funds Requirement, the Firm has considered the key risks to the Firm's operating model. Due to our prudential classification as a Non-SNI, the Firm's own funds requirement is based on the higher of the Permanent Minimum Requirement ('PMR'), the Fixed Overheads Requirement ('FOR') or the K-Factor Requirement ('KFR'). On this basis, the Firm retained the FOR which at year-end 31st December 2022 is £646,774

4.2 Concentration Risk MIFIDPRU 5

The Firm does not conduct any trading on own account. The Firm therefore does not have any concentration risks on or off-balance sheet and does not operate a trading book.

4.3 Liquidity risk - MIFIDPRU 6

The Firm maintains minimum liquidity at all times in compliance with the Basic Liquid Asset Requirement, being at least one third of its FOR.

The Firm does not provide any client guarantees and therefore its entire liquidity requirement is driven by its expenses, as captured by the FOR.

As part of the Internal Capital Adequacy and Risk Assessment ('ICARA'), the Firm also maintains liquidity to satisfy its net wind-down costs and any additional liquidity requirements which the ICARA identified for supporting the ongoing business activities of the Firm.

4.4 Harms associated with business strategy.

The Firm has conducted a comprehensive risk identification exercise of potential harms in line with MIFIDPRU 7 Annex 1 across all business lines to ensure that all significant risks are identified. The Firm has developed a comprehensive Risk Register containing all relevant details for each risk that has been identified. All business areas of the Firm have input into the development of the risk register to ensure all areas of potential harm are identified. All risks recorded in the register are categorised in terms of potential harms to clients, the firm itself or markets. The following outlines the firms categories of risk mapped to potential harms.

- Strategic
- Regulatory & Risk
- Financial
- Operational

Group Risk

Group risk represents the risk that the financial position of a firm may be adversely affected by its relationships (financial or non-financial) with other entities in the same group or by risk which may affect the financial position of the whole group.

Wealthtime Limited is exposed to group risk because of shared services with other firms in the group and interdependencies with the parent. This risk is managed through service-legal agreements between Wealthtime Select and all entities that provide services to the entity.

Group risk can be a harm to clients and the firm itself.

4.5 Approach to risk management

The management of risk within Wealthtime Select is formalised and set out in the Firm's risk management and risk appetite framework, and in associated policies.

Wealthtime Select assigns clear roles and responsibilities for managing its identified risks. The Board of the Firm is responsible for the total process of risk management, as well as forming its own opinion on the effectiveness of the process. The Board sets the Firm's risk strategy policies.

The Board decides the Firm's appetite – those risks it will accept and those it will not take in the pursuit of its goals and objectives. In addition, the Board ensures that the Firm has implemented an effective, ongoing process to identify risk, to measure its potential impact against a broad set of assumptions and then to ensure that such risks are actively managed.

Wealthtime Select has implemented a 'three lines of defence' model to identify, manage and mitigate actual or potential harms.

Defence 1: Business line management is responsible for identifying and mitigating the harms arising within their areas of functional activity.

Defence 2: Functions such as Risk, Compliance, Financial Crime, Legal and Finance provide regulatory and technical guidance to business line managers and the Board. The Compliance function provides regulatory advice and assurance monitoring within the compliance risk universe and provides assurance reports to the Board along with thought leadership on the impact of any new regulation and manages the FCA relationship. The Risk Function undertakes assurance testing of local controls, policies and procedures and provides reports to management and indicates actions necessary to mitigate risks of harm. The Risk Function also provides advice to the Board as necessary.

Defence 3: The Firm's Internal Audit provide independent assurance to both the Board and Risk Function by undertaking regular compliance audits, providing compliance advice, and reviewing policies and procedures.

The risk management framework comprises the following components

- Risk governance including policies and procedure,
- Board-defined overall risk appetite, risk statements,
- Risk taxonomy,
- Risk and control self-assessment,
- Capital and liquidity adequacy,
- Stress testing,
- Monitoring, reporting, and management information,
- ICARA process review document.

4.6 Statement of risk appetite

The Board regards managing risk as a process of continuous improvement. The Firm continuously undertakes a program of enhancing its existing Risk Management Framework. The Board has adopted a conservative approach to the Firm's risk appetite to maintain a strong capital position, liquidity and balance sheet throughout market cycles. Risk is a fundamental characteristic of the Firm's business. Wealthtime Select is committed to ensuring all business activities are conducted with a clear understanding of the risks, to maintaining a robust risk management framework, ensuring transparent disclosure, treating its clients fairly, and to meet the expectations of major stakeholders, including clients, employees, and regulators.

In line with the Firm's business strategy, risk appetite and risk management framework, the Firm identified and further assesses key risks within the Firm's ICARA process. 7.2 Compliance with Overall Financial Adequacy Rule

In line with the provisions relating to the Overall Financial Adequacy Rule ('OFAR') set out in MIFIDPRU 7.4.7R, Wealthtime Limited is also required to disclose its approach to assessing the adequacy of the Firm's own funds.

ICARA process

Within the annual ICARA process, the Firm is required to identify and assess the following:

- any material/key risks that arise from its activities;
- any material harms that may be caused to the clients, the market or the Firm itself as a result of its activities; and
- whether, at all times, the Firm has sufficient own funds and liquid resources to meet the Overall Financial OFAR.

The OFAR requires that the Firm holds own funds and liquid assets which are adequate (both in amount and quality) to ensure that:

- the Firm can remain financially viable throughout the economic cycle and be able to address any material potential harm; and
- the Firm's business can be wound down in an orderly manner with minimal impact on consumers and other market participants.

The process of embedding the ICARA process within the Firm has been completed and the adequacy of the ICARA process will be reviewed on an annual basis thereafter, or more frequently, should there be any material change to the business risk profile or business model.

The ICARA process encompasses various aspects of internal governance with a particular focus on:

- identification, monitoring and mitigation of harms;
- business model planning and forecasting;
- recovery and wind-down planning; and
- assessing the adequacy of financial resources; and
- assessing the overall effectiveness of the risk management of the Firm.

As part of the ICARA process, the Firm establishes its own funds threshold requirement and its liquid assets threshold requirement to comply with the OFAR and to ensure the Firm can remain viable, addressing any potential harm from ongoing activities, and can wind-down in an orderly way. For harms not adequately mitigated through existing systems and controls, the Firm assesses whether additional own funds and/or liquid assets are required.

The recovery action planning contains appropriate recovery actions to restore own funds and/or liquid resources to avoid breaching threshold requirements and early-warning-indicators ('EWIs') to assist the Firm when approaching trigger levels and set out credible actions to help reverse or repair any adverse trends.

The wind-down planning includes triggers (own funds and liquid assets) and timelines. The Firm considers different scenarios that could cause a need to wind-down the business. These underlying drivers could result in the need for different resources (financial and non-financial) during the wind-down period. The Firm sets resources aside so that sufficient own funds and liquid assets are available at all times to enable an orderly wind-down.

Risk Management

Wealthtime Limited maintains a Risk Register which contains the main risks of the Firm, based on its activities, but also based on the type of events that are recorded in incident databases. The risk register also contains information about mitigations and controls, in order to assess net impacts and probabilities of relevant material risks.

Each risk within the Risk Register is cross-referenced to possible ICARA harms (client, market, firm) and assessed to determine its materiality to the Firm. It also includes a description of the controls put in place to mitigate the risk.

Wealthtime Limited's risk appetite defines the risk types, the Firm's material risks and the tolerances that the Firm is prepared to accept in pursuit of its strategic objectives and business strategy, considering the interests of its clients and shareholders, as well as own funds and other regulatory requirements.

The Firm's overall risk appetite must be such that its own fund and liquidity requirements, as captured in the ICARA process, are maintained within its risk bearing capacity or capital resources. The most material risks identified in the Risk Register are assessed to determine appropriate own funds and liquidity reserves. Regular stress testing and scenario analysis is undertaken to ensure these reserves are sufficient to meet current and future obligations under a variety of stressed conditions.

Own funds adequacy

Wealthtime Limited assesses the adequacy of its own funds on a regular basis against a variety of own funds requirement assessments. In maintaining the Firm's own funds requirements within the risk appetite, Early warning indicators (EWIs) have been established. These are agreed as part of the annual own funds planning process and reviewed annually.

Liquid assets adequacy

The Firm has an established liquidity risk management framework based on the Firm's approved liquidity risk appetite in order to ensure that:

- the basic liquid asset requirement ('BLAR') is met; and
- the liquid assets threshold requirement is determined.

The Firm further assesses its compliance with liquid asset threshold requirement which is based on the sum of BLAR and an additional liquid asset requirement determined during the ICARA process, to ensure liquidity adequacy in stressed conditions and during an orderly wind-down as part of its OFAR compliance from a liquidity perspective.

Liquidity risks are identified through ongoing liquidity management and monitoring, which contribute to the development of the Firm's liquidity risk management framework and formulating stress testing scenario design and key assumptions.

The Firm's monitoring and reporting of its liquidity position is undertaken through established reporting against the key liquidity metrics. Any triggers or breaches would be escalated in line with the escalation framework.
