Refund of Adviser Charges on cancellation

You can cancel this agreement at any time by notifying us in writing, which will cancel all Adviser Charges agreements you've entered into with your financial adviser.

Adviser Charges due to your Adviser, calculated up to the date we receive your cancellation notice, will be paid as normal at the next payment date. You'll need to discuss with your Adviser whether you're due a refund from them.

Data protection

Please refer to the data protection clauses included in the Wealthtime Classic Key Features, Terms and Conditions and Data Privacy Policy available at wealthtime.com.

Disputes

We're unable to adjudicate any disputes between you and your Adviser regarding Adviser Charges. At your written request, we'll provide you with copies of your Adviser Charges agreements and any Adviser Charges agreement cancellation instruction we hold on file. If any complaints are received directly by us, they'll be investigated using our complaints procedure and a formal written response will be provided to you in line with the Financial Conduct Authority rules and those of any successor.

Investor declaration

I/We confirm my/our agreement to these Adviser Charges and authorise and request Wealthtime Classic to facilitate payment of these on my/our behalf.

I/We understand you will only facilitate payment of these Adviser Charges if my/our financial adviser is authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority and has agreed to the Wealthtime Classic Adviser Terms of Business.

Section two – to be completed by your Adviser

Adviser Charges will be paid by bank transfer to the account provided on the Adviser Registration Application Form, unless this has been amended in writing.

All Adviser Charges must be agreed in advance with each Investor for their Wealthtime Classic Wrap and/or Product(s). It's your responsibility to make sure the Adviser Charges appropriately reflect the services being provided to your client and are reasonable as set out by the FCA.

It's your responsibility to agree a charges schedule with your client, explain the impact and maintain any necessary written authority for setting up and any subsequent changes. You're responsible for agreeing with your client how any unpaid charges will be paid (if there are insufficient funds in their Wrap at the time of the charges payment).

If your Adviser Charges are subject to VAT please tick this box

If you've indicated that VAT is applied to your Adviser Charges, it's your responsibility to make sure this is in accordance with your remuneration agreement with your client.

Important notes

Sufficient funds

Adviser Charges will be paid only when there's sufficient cash in the relevant Product bank account.

If there are insufficient funds in the Product bank account, it may mean that Adviser Charges can't be paid on time.

New deposits

Where new funds or transfers are received after the Wealthtime Classic Investment Platform or Product(s) have been set up, the same Adviser Charges terms will apply.
